1. USE OF COOKIES:

The CHALICE WEBSITE uses a technology called cookies to obtain information on the use of the WEBSITE and to enhance users' experience.

2. DEFINITION AND FUNCTION OF COOKIES:

Cookies are small files that are sent and stored on the hard drive of users' computers through their browser when it connects to a website. Among other things, cookies allow a website to store and retrieve information on the browsing habits of users or their computer and, according to the information that they contain and the way in which the users use their computer, may be used to recognise the users.

3. CLASSIFICATION OF COOKIES:

Cookies can be classified according to different parameters:

- Ownership: first or third-party cookies, depending on the entity that manages the domain name from which the cookies are sent and the data obtained are processed.
- Duration: session cookies or persistent cookies, depending on the period of time that they are stored on the user terminal.
- Purpose: technical cookies, personalisation cookies, analysis cookies, advertising cookies, behavioural advertising cookies, according to the purpose for which the data obtained are processed.

According to their purpose, the following types of cookies can be defined:

- Technical cookies: those which enable users to browse a website or application and use the various options or services on it (videos to facilitate purchases, social networks, etc.).
- Personalisation cookies: those which enable users to access the service with certain predefined general characteristics according to their preferences (language, type of browser, settings, content design).
- Analysis cookies: those which enable the anonymous analysis of users' behaviour on the website and allow the measurement of the user's activity and the production of browsing profiles to enhance websites.
- Advertising cookies: those which enable the management of advertising spaces on the website.
- Behavioural advertising cookies: those which enable the management of the advertising spaces on the website based on the users' behaviour and browsing habits; this allows their profile to be obtained and enables the personalisation of the advertising which is displayed on the users' browser.

4. COOKIES USED ON THE WEBSITE:

The CHALICE WEBSITE uses first-party and third-party cookies. First-party cookies are used to handle user state and provide functionality of the WEBSITE and third-party cookies enable the analysis of data by Google Analytics. Under no circumstances will the cookies process any personal data.

The cookies are enabled each time a new user visits the WEBSITE or when the cookies have been deleted.

5. CONSENT TO COOKIES AND OPERATION OF THE WEBSITE:

You may revoke your consent to the use of cookies at any time. To do so, you will need to disable the cookies on the WEBSITE by following the instructions of the section above according to the browser that you use.

Please note that the revocation of consent, and therefore the disabling of certain cookies, may prevent the use of certain functionalities on our website.

6. UPDATES AND MODIFICATION:

The WEBSITE may modify this information on cookies. We therefore recommend that you check this policy each time you access the CHALICE CHAPELS WEBSITE.
